Travel arrangements & Visas

Participants are responsible for making their own travel arrangements. It is recommended that you check your visa requirements with your local embassy or consulate.

How to get from the airport to the Intercontinental Hotel

By metro

Take the pink line (number 8) from the airport to the Nuevos Ministerios Station. Change to the blue line (number 10) to Gregorio Marañón (one stop). It is a 5 minutes' walk from the Gregorio Marañón metro station to the Hotel, which is located at the back of the Hotel. A metro ticket costs 1 Euro. For the Metro map please click www.metromadrid.es. The Metro in Madrid is safe, quick and clean.

By taxi

Depending on the traffic it will take you 20 minutes. The costs are approximately 20 Euros.

How to go from the Intercontinental Hotel to the Madrid Bar Association (Friday reception)

It takes about 25 minutes to walk, but it is a worthy walk! Please click here for directions. Press + or - to graduate the image.

How to go from the Intercontinental Hotel to the Westin Palace for the Saturday dinner

Please click here link to see the find a map with the route description.

If you want to go out...

The pub "Blue Bar", Calle Concha Espina, 39, near Santiago Bernabeu Stadium has been recommended to us. Very close to the Intercontinental Hotel there is a place called "Fortuny", Calle Fortuny, 34. It is a small palace and a very well known disco in Madrid.
